AT THE OPERA.

Yesterday was again a day of triumph for M. Jean de Reezke at the opera, and he shared his laurels most gracefully with Mme. Eames, who was a most radiant and fascinating Juliette in Gound's opera, which one would think had reached the limit of its drawing capacity, but which plainly has not, to judge by the crowded and the stupendous enthusiasm which

MME, MARCHESI TO SING FOR CHARITY.

TWO CONCERTS FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE KIN DEEGARTEN ASSOCIATION-THE VICTOR HARRIS OUARTET

Two musical entertainments will be given for the benefit of the New-York Kuidergarten Association which will undoubtedly be as interesting from a musical and social point of view as any of the previous highly successful entertainments under the same auspices. They will take place on the aftermoons of January 23 and February 3, at 3:30 o'clock, at the houses of two of the patronesses, which will be made known later. At the first one Mme. Blanche Marchesi will sing before a New-York audience for the first time, and at the second the Victor Harris Quartet, comprising Miss Marguerite Hall, Mrs. Seabury Ford and Messrs. Mackenzie Gordon and Carl Dufft, will sing a cycle of Tennyson songs composed by Arthur Foote and Victor Harris. Mme. DINNER OF THE CITY CLUB.

HERBERT WELSH, OF PHILADEDPHIA, EN-TERTAINED-THANKS FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The City Club gave a dinner last evening at it house, at Fifth-ave, and Thirty-fifth-st., at which a large number of the members of the club wer present. The Rev. Dr. Slas C. Swallow, who wa he Independent candidate for Governor at the la election in Pennsylvania, was to have been one of the club's guests, but he was kept away by illnes in his family. Herbet Welsh, a well-known Inde pendent, of Philadelphia, was present.

Richard Watson Gilder, acting president of the club, presided, and among the speakers he introduced was ex-Justice Charles P. Daly. Mr. Daly had not expected to be called upon, and had prevelcome he received from the guests forced him to were, however, brief. When the diners had tired of waving their napkins and cheering, he congratu lated the club on the fine work it had lately been doing in behalf of the municipality and good goernment in general, and pointed out the great and useful future that existed for such an organization porations and the safeguards that should be applied to them to keep them within the bounds of reason. He declared that the most effective way to deal with them was to induce good citizens who were largely interested in them to prevent them from exceeding limits beyond which they could not go without damage to the public welfare.

James W. Pryor, secretary of the City Club, read a letter from Governor Roosevelt thanking the club for calling attention to the need for having all bills passed by or introduced in the Legislature properly marked, and the new parts they contained sufficiently noted. He said that his recent action in saying that he would sign only bills that were so marked was due to the fact that the City Ciub had called his attention to the necessity for such action.

DIVORCED WIFE HUSBAND'S HEIR.

SHE RECEIVES THE GREATER PART OF HIS PROPERTY FOR HER LIFETIME. DESPITE THE DIVORCE.

He goes co to say:

The will says that the bequests to Mrs. O'Farrel are in lieu of dower. One-half of the residue of th state is to be divided equally between the Little estate is to be divided equally between the Little Sisters of the Poor and the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. The other half of the residue is to be equally divided between a number of nephews and nieces of the testator. On the death of Mrs. O'Farrell all the property left to her for her life is to be divided between the testator's nephews and nieces, and the will provides that any beneficiary under it who attempts to contest it shall lose the share in the property left to him or her.

RUTGERS ALUMNÆ MEET.

ANNUAL REUNION AND LUNCHEON OF THE AS.

The Alumnie Association of Rutgers Institute and College held its annual reunion and luncheon yesterday in the East Room of the Waldorf-Astoria. some thirty-eight me small tables, decorated with pink and tions, filled the body of the room, while a long table on the dals at one end was occupied by Mrs. Jennie de la M. Lozier, acting president in the absence of Mrs. Vanderpoel; the other officers of the ass ciation, and the invited guests. At the close of the luncheon, Mrs. Lozier extended a graceful welcome to members and guests, but regretted that Mrs. Vanderpoel's "predilection for circumnavigating the globe every once in a while" had thrown the duty upon her. She stated that the association was going on in a wholesome way, made a resume of the work already accomplished, outlined plans for the future and congratulated the association on the spirit which kept them close together. Mrs.

Tyler-Dutton then sang selections. Letters of regret were read by Mrs. E. S. Osbon, corresponding secretary, from Dr. West, Mrs. Vanderpoel and Mrs. Katle Thorp Heirdecooper.
Miss Sadle Vere Milne gave a recital from "Quo

Vadis," and Mrs. John Levery Vadis, and Mrs. John Park, spoke on the subject, "Two Sides to Every Question."

The "feast of reason" closed with a paper by Miss Josephine Walton on "Lafayette's Sojourn in the South." The sketch opened with a description of the celebrated Frenchman given by Mme. Octavia Walton Le Vert, a granddaughter of the Mrs. Walton who was Lafayette's personal friend. This description was found in a paper that was prepared for a Fourth of July celebration years ago. The manuscript Miss Walton read from was Mme. La Vert's original paper. When Lafayette was in the United States in 1834-25, he wrote to the widow of his friend, George Walton, and invited her to meet him in Mobile, through which town he must pass. Not being able to take the journey from Pensacola, where she lived, the aged Mrs. Walton sent her little granddaughter to meet the distinguished Frenchman. The girl, then only fourteen years old afterward called this "the first experience in the busy and varied drama of life." This child became the Mme. La Vert who at home and abroad stood throughout her life as a representative of the American woman of culture and thought.

DUTY OF UNITED STATES.

SET FORTH BY SENATOR GRAY, OF THE PEACE COMMISSION, AT A DINNER IN HIS HONOR.

RESPONSIBILITY OF TAKING THE PHILIPPINE COULD NOT BE AVOIDED WITHOUT RE-NEWAL OF THE WAR-PRAISE FOR

Wilmington, Del., Jan. 14.-United States Senator George Gray was the recipient of a complimentary dinner in this city to-night President McKinley, his Cabinet, and all the members of the Peace Commission, with the regret. Mr. Moore was the only member of the Commission present. There were two hundred guests in attendance. Senator Gray was the chief speaker of the evening, and responding to the toast "Our Guests of Honor," he said: "It seems to me very commonplace and cold, in response to this generous welcome, to say "Thank you," from a full heart, and yet, what else can I say? When one feels deeply, short words are best, and commonplace phrases take on a new meaning.

"I have had, as you know, the great honor of having been sent by the President of the United States as one of the Commissioners to negotiate and conclude a treaty of peace with Spain, and we lately brought home with us such a treaty, which, if ratified, will restore peace between the two countries, and make more secure the peac of the world.

"We are now in a crisis of our National history, and your hearts and mine, as patriotic citizens of this great country, are full of anxiety as to the proper settlement of the momentous issues, which have resulted from the war with Spain. While our country was at war with Spain we were ready to make, I hope, every acrifice to insure the success of American arms and bring victory and honor to the American flag. And when the war was over, I believe the patriotic instincts of American citizenship demanded, as your President enjoined upon us, that we should exhibit magnanimity to a prostrate foe and moderation in the hour of victory, as we had faced the war with steadfastness and courage.

it was my pleasure, as well as what I conceived my duty, to endeavor to carry out this instruction, so creditable to us as a nation and so worthy of the high civilization of which we profess to be leaders. The acquisition of territory by the United States was not one of the objects of the war, and we solemnly declared in the resolutions of Congress that our only object in demanding the relinquishment of the sovereignty of Cuba by Spain was not to hold it ourselves, except that we might pacify it and fit it for self-government by its own people. But in this, as in all else, 'man proposes and God disposes,' and that is one of the things that make thoughtful men desire to avoid war, when it can be avoided, for no one can tell what its consequence may be.

NO DESIRE FOR THE PHILIPPINES. "I ardently desired that we might escape the necessity of taking the Philippine Islands and assuming the burden that their taking will impose upon us, and I know that the President of the United States was equally anxious to the same end. But it became apparent that, without our seeking, unexpected conditions had been created, and out of these conditions unquestionable duties had sprung which could not be avoided or evaded by the United States. "It was argued that the performance of duty s not only sometimes unpleasant, but has dangers attendant upon it; nevertheless, a brave man and a brave nation will not shrink from it on that account. On the other hand, if American sentiment did not justify the return of these islands to Spain, no more could it justify leaving them derelict in the Eastern ocean, the prey of European rapacity.

"The Powers of Europe would acquiesce in our taking them, but they would not stand by and see them in the helpless condition of anarchy Amberst (Mass.) papers please copy. and disorder without seizing the opportunity to aggrandize themselves; and so it was thought best by the President and his advisers to take the cession of their sovereignty from Spain and hold it in trust, to be administered in conformity with those high ideals and liberty-loving traditions which animate and glorify the history of our country. Duty cannot honorably be avoided because it may bring pain or danger, nor can responsibility always be evaded because of its burdens. "That I sought in Paris by all honorable means to escape this responsibility does not matter now. It came to a point at last that we must either leave the islands to Spain, take them as we did, or break off negotiations and come home without a treaty of peace. In the last event the truce would have been broken. and a state of active war would have been resumed. We would have no cession of the sovereignty of the Philippines, and none of Porto Rico, and no relinquishment of the sovereignty of Cuba "It is true that in the protocol of August 12 Spain had definitely promised that she would cede Porto Rico and relinquish Cuba, but withcede Porto Rico and relinquish Cuba, but without a treaty of peace that promise would not be performed. What would then have been the exigency of the situation? Undoubtedly we would have been compelled to go on and selze with the strong hand and by military power both the Philippine Archipelago and the Greater and Lesser Antilles, taking by ruthless conquest what it was far better that we should take by the voluntary cession of a treaty of peace.

NOT COMMITTED TO COLONIAL POLICY. "But now that we have them, it does not follow that we are committed to a colonial policy or to a violation of those great principles of liberty and self-government which must always remain American ideals if our own free institu-tions are to endure. No country, and this coun-try least of all, can afford to trample on its ideals. I have no fear that it will do so.

Without assuming for a moment any right to speak for the President, I think I can assure you, with some knowledge whereof I speak, that he fully appreciates the duties and responsibilities of the situation, and that he is committed to a policy calculated to discourage, much less relies. ties of the situation, and that he is committee, no policy calculated to discourage, much less strike down, the aspirations of liberty-loving people all over the world. I belong to a different political party, but I should be false to my sense of justice and to that pride which I feel as an American if I did not declare my confidence in the patriotism and purity of purpose of William McKinger. He is no usurper of power, no stran-McKinley. He is no usurper of power, no stran-ger to American institutions, but one of the American people called to his high office by their ger to American institutions, but one of the American people called to his high office by their suffrages, and it would be strange indeed if he did not share to the fullest extent in the love of our Constitution and the principles that underile it. When less than this can be truthfully said of an American President it will be the beginning of the end to our great career as a Nation.

"But the solution of the problems which confront us is not with the President. When the treaty is ratified no policy can be adopted without the sanction of Congress. And the whole American people will determine, through their representatives, what relations we shall sustain to the Philippines. Shall we hold the sovereignty in trust for their people as we will do in Cuba, or shall we, with their consent, establish a protectorate over them, or govern them as we will the island of Porto Rico?

"All these important questions will properly come up for determination after the ratification of the treaty. I will not entertain the fear that the American people will not stand by the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence; that they will not curb the ambition of territorial aggrandizement and exhibit to the world an example of moderation, justice and self-restraint that will be worth to us in moral strength more than all the islands of the seas."

PRESIDENT OF PHILADELPHIA MUSEUMS. Philadelphia, Jan. 14.-The Board of Trustees of the Philadelphia Commercial Museums met to-day and elected Charles H. Cramp, president of the Cramp Ship and Engine Building Company, for president of the museums, to succeed the late Dr. William Pepper. J. C. Strawbridge was chosen vice-president, to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Cramp's promotion. Sydney L. Wright and William W. Watts were re-elected treasurer and secretary respectively.

BISHOP M'LAREN UNABLE TO ACCEPT.

HE WILL NOT GO TO PORTO RICO AS SPECIAL EPISCOPAL DELEGATE.

Chicago, Jan. 14.-The Rev. William E. McLaren, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Chicago, will beto accept the appointment of special delegate for the Church for Porto Rico, which was conferred upon him recently by a commission selected by the Triennial Convention in Washington. Pressing church duties prevent the Bishop from entering upon the work of investigating the newly acquired territory of the United States in the interests of the mission work of the Church.

have decided not to go," said Bishop McLaren, "at least not for several months, It is possible that "at least not for several months, It is possible that's I may visit Porto Rico next fall, and then in any unofficial capacity." The commission which selected me will probably send some one else to look, the field over in the mean time. It is the policy of the Church to exercise a spiritual jurisdiction over every square foot of territory within the control of the United States Government, and since Porto Rico has been added to our possessions the Episcopal Church will not delay carrying out its policy."
